

The context

923,000

Refugees are estimated to be in Cox's Bazar. The concentration of refugees in this area is now among the densest in the world.

693,000

People have fled violence in Myanmar and crossed into Bangladesh since 25 August 2017, arriving without food, water or shelter.

People have been reached with health promotion activities.

124,450

79,400

Individuals received clinical treatment.

322,800

Men, women and children benefited from food distributions.

637,950

Men, women and children have been directly assisted by Integral Members.

73,050

Men, women and children received essential household items.

71,500

People were provided with emergency water, hygiene kits or latrines.

900

Children were able to make use of child-friendly spaces.

2,400

People benefited from psycho-social counselling.

47,250

People received emergency shelter kits.

Integral Disaster Response launched

18 Integral Members are working together to respond to this disaster