On 28 September 2018, multiple earthquakes and aftershocks struck the island of Sulawesi, Indonesia triggering a tsunami and causing widespread death and devastation.

Our response

18 Integral Members worked together to respond to this disaster

- 86,300 People received help to access safe water or temporary latrines.
- 112,350 Men, women and children were directly assisted by Integral Members.
- 37,700 People were served by health clinics run by Integral Members.
- 32,950 Men, women and children received emergency food distributions.
- 28,350 Men, women and children received essential household items.
- 19,050 People were served by health clinics run by Integral Members.
- 5,950 People received psychosocial support for trauma.
- 6,150 Individuals in displaced families benefitted from cash transfers.
- 9,500 Individuals were trained in Disaster Risk Reduction.
- 2,050 People received livelihood support.
- 130,000 people displaced

For more information visit: www.integralalliance.org

Source: OCHA and Integral Members (all figures rounded to the nearest 50)