

Our Kingdom values unite us in prayer, Christian reflection and collaborative action.
We work to create and sustain a community of trust among our Members in which collaborative work can thrive.

Unity

We are committed to Jesus' call to unity, and believe unity is God's gift to us outworked through the power of the Holy Spirit. We unite in order to enable all people in need to flourish as God intended.

Christ-centredness

We practise the presence of God in our midst through listening, reflection and prayer. We strive to provide space for the prophetic voice of the Spirit to shape and guide us as an alliance and inform our action.

Impartiality

We adhere to core principles of the Red Cross Code of Conduct. Aid is given regardless of the race, creed or nationality of the recipients and without adverse distinction of any kind. Aid priorities are calculated on the basis of need alone.

Relational

We put people first, and desire to see each person fulfil their God-given potential. We want all our interactions to be marked by servant heartedness, generosity, openness, integrity and mutual respect. We believe that by expressing organisational humility we demonstrate the character of God to a suffering world.

Accountability

We strive for professional excellence and are mutually accountable for the quality of our work to each other, our constituents, our stakeholders and to God. We are a learning alliance, committed to transparency, reflecting on and evaluating our joint work, and assessing our collective impact.

Complementarity

We believe that as our Members combine their strengths and work interdependently, we have greater reach and impact. By working together, we provide a more complete response to the needs of those we serve.

In a world that is often cynical, fragmented and hostile, we are Christians who believe that disaster and suffering are not the end of the story.
