

The context

South Asia

Torrential rains across Bangladesh, India and Nepal destroyed tens of thousands of houses as well as schools and hospitals leaving millions of people displaced and in need of life-saving assistance.

Our response

40 million people affected across three countries.

Integral Members are working both directly and with local partners.

Integral Disaster Response launched

16 Integral Members are working together to respond to this disaster