

Response

Integral Members are responding to COVID-19 through preparedness and prevention and providing medical treatment and supplies. They are also responding to new needs as they arise as a result of the pandemic.

Integral's 22 Members work in over 90 countries in 34 sectors
with a network of 580 Partners

All are affected by the COVID-19
global pandemic

Collaboration

Integral provides a platform for Members to share expertise, learning and best practice in programmes and fundraising. Integral enables Members to share real time information about the impact of COVID-19 on their work around the world. Through Integral relationships, Members are sharing funds in order to support each other's responses.

Innovation

Integral Members are adapting their work in light of COVID-19 and using technology where possible in their fundraising and programmes. They are also supporting their Partners to adapt to new ways of working.

Scenario Planning

Integral Members are considering the longer term socio-economic impact of the virus in the communities they serve - on areas such as food, livelihoods and mental health.
