

The context

Typhoon Mangkhut (known locally as Ompong) made landfall on the largest island of the Philippines on September 15, 2018, causing extensive damage to homes and infrastructure.

34,950

Men, women and children were directly assisted by Integral Members.

18,000

People benefited from food distributions.

13,450

Men, women and children received essential household items.

Our response

2,300

People were helped with emergency shelter kits or construction of safe shelters.

1,700

Individuals received seeds and tools to help re-establish livelihoods.

300

People received psychosocial support.

18 Sept
2018

Integral Disaster Response launched

10 Integral Members are working together to respond to this disaster