Indonesia: Lombok Earthquakes 12 Month Update

The context

A number of earthquakes hit the island of Lombok in Indonesia. The strongest struck on 5 August and measured 7.0 magnitude. These earthquakes and the aftershocks that followed caused widespread damage to homes and public infrastructure.

Our response

- 9,300 People received psychosocial support.
- 6,400 People received emergency shelter kits.
- 38,500 Men, women and children were directly assisted by Integral Members.
- 14,000 People were provided with emergency water, hygiene kits or latrines.
- 350 Men and women received livelihood support.
- 3,600 People received emergency water, hygiene kits or latrines.
- 400 Children were able to make use of child-friendly spaces.
- 1,050 Individuals received clinical treatments.
- 5,650 Men, women and children benefitted from food distributions.
- 2,650 Men and women received livelihood support.

For more information visit: www.integralalliance.org

Source: OCHA and Integral Members (all figures rounded to the nearest 50)

10 Integral Members are supporting local partners to respond to this disaster.

13 Aug 2018 Integral Disaster Response launched.