

The context

The UN have called this the fastest growing refugee crisis in the world.

884,000

Refugees are estimated to be in Cox's Bazar. The concentration of refugees in this area is now among the densest in the world.

+671,000

People have fled violence in Myanmar and crossed into Bangladesh since 25 August, arriving without food, water or shelter.

The response

295,350

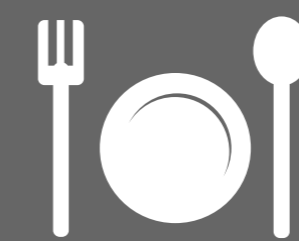

Men, women and children have been directly assisted by Integral Members.

Health

50,100

People can be treated with the medical treatments provided.

Food

222,700

Men, women and children benefited from food distributions.

Shelter

22,500

People received emergency shelter kits.

22,500

Feminine hygiene kits have been distributed.

Members are working both directly and with local partners.

In addition, 350,000 people now have access to healthcare as a result of our Members working together.

Integral Disaster Response launched

16 Integral Members are working together to respond to this disaster